

Craft Skills for Garden Conservation

Programme* for the webinar “Trees in Climate Change in Historic Gardens”
Time	10th January 2023, 09:30 – 15:30 with a break 12:00 – 13:30 (GTM+01:00)
Host:	Schloss Dyck Foundation / European Garden Heritage Network
Information:	The webinar will be in English. It will be recorded and available on the project website. After the webinar we ask you to answer a survey about the webinar.

GMT +01:00	Please be aware of the time zones: GMT/UCT (Greenwich Mean Time/Coordinated Universal Time). For participants in the UK, please deduct ONE hour to the times specified below.
09:30 – 09:40	Kate Nicoll , CSGC Workshop Coordinator: Welcome to the webinar. The history of trees in historic parks and gardens.
09:40 – 10:00	Philipp Sattler , Initiative Alliance Historical Gardens in Climate Change: The wide range of damaging events affecting trees in parks and gardens
10:00 – 10:20	Prof. Dr. Norbert Kühn , Technical University Berlin, Vegetation Technology and Plant Use The influence of climate change on trees in historic parks. Current state and outlook under garden heritage aspects.
10:20 – 10:40	Dr. Henrik Sjöman , Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences and Curator at Gothenburg Botanical Garden: How is climate change affecting our trees? Can we "switch" to other trees?
10:40 – 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 – 11:20	Q&A and Panel Discussions
11:20 – 11:40	Jens Spanjer , Schloss Dyck Foundation: Hazards, Damages and Measures in a Historic Park – Schloss Dyck Case Study.
11:40 – 12:00	Q&A and Panel Discussions
12:00 – 13:30	Lunch Break
13:30 – 13:50	Dr. Meike Kirscht , Palaces and Gardens Baden-Württemberg: Preserving garden monuments - care and replanting of trees in historic gardens.
13:50 – 14:10	Kerstin Abicht , Lorenz von Ehren Nursery: How nurseries support the maintenance and replanting of trees in historic parks and gardens.
14:10 – 14:30	Q&A and Panel Discussions
14:30 – 14:50	Simon Toomer , Curator for Living Collections at Kew Gardens Stronger trees: Practical approaches both in historic gardens and botanical collections.
14:50 – 15:00	Q&A and Panel Discussions
15:00 – 15:30	Final discussion, workshop launch and survey.